

Arizona Aikido

Special Seminar – November 6 – 7, 2015

Featuring Roberto (Bob) Garza, 5th dan, Soseikan Dojo, Worth, Illinois. Garza Sensei began his Martial Arts training in 1977-78 while serving in the United States Marine Corps. While in the USMC, he studied Hwa Rang Do, which was at the time the only place to study this art outside of Korea. It was during his years of service when he was introduced to Aikido.

In 1990, he joined the Aikido Association of America and was instructed by Shihan Fumio Toyoda and his various instructors.

During his years as an Aikido instructor, he was introduced to Japanese Swordsmanship by Toyoda Shihan. Garza Sensei, along with Aikido, is a practitioner of Iaido and reached the Nidan level.
